SIEZA

PENDANT LIGHT FITTING WITH
CORD SET AND CEILING CUP

Similar to form and shape, posture can communicate feeling and emotion. This shape light has been named Sieza after the sitting posture. Sieza is the basic kneeling position before and after marshall arts classes, observed as a form of quiet respect. Each piece of the light is designed to clip together using only opposing forces of tension and compression, with no fasteners or glue required. It is available flatpack or pre-assembled.
