TENDU

PENDANT LIGHT FITTING WITH
CORD SET AND CEILING CUP

Similar to form and shape, posture can communicate feeling and emotion. This shape light has been named Tendu after the ballet position. Tendu, meaning extended, or literally 'stretched', is the gradual extension of the leg outwards until only the toes touch the floor. Each piece of the light is designed to clip together using only opposing forces of tension and compression, with no fasteners or glue required. It is available flatpack or pre-assembled.
